A deputation to England is a very good thing for an Englishman — not so to that extent for an Indian

W 4/4

Nawanagar also said that there can be no objection in England and thereby speaking the Officers accompanying the Jam Saheb should be considered as on leave. Mr Ahsan suggested that the whole of the Ld. Sahebs pay & the Palace. In these circumstances Govt have shown ample discretion & allowing them to go to England without any leave and giving them their pay during the period. The Staff Allowance cannot therefore be admissible. Deputations in British India on His Highness' service require considerable and therefore the Staff allowance proposed & allowed. Mr Ahsan's friend on the case of deputations outside India Considering that deputations to England entitles an Officer to 2/3 of his Indian Salary there is no reason to allow the Staff allce — the more so when the Officer is not there on His Highness the Maharaja's service. ~~Govt sanction of the proposal~~

2. When Mr Raghavendra Rao is deputed to places in South India other than Madras or Ooty & is not in attendance on H.H. he is entitled to draw the staff allowance in addition to ordinary t.a. allce.

3. The present case differs in two ways from the situation contemplated above viz. the place of deputation is not in British India and the t.a. drawn is not ordinary but at special rates.

4. In my opinion these circumstances do not affect the general principle that Mr R. is to retain the staff allowance in addition to t.a. when deputed to distance places. The Comptr may be informed that his interpretation of the intention of Govt is correct.

SIR,

Adverting to Government Order No.Fl:4951-4 dated 3rd instant sanctioning the services of Mr.P.Raghavendra Rao, Huzur Secretary, being utilised as a member of the suite of His Highness the Yuvaraja during his visit to Europe, I have the honour to request that you will be good enough to inform this office, if the staff allowance of Rs.200/- per mensem which Mr.P.Raghavendra Rao is in receipt of should be passed to him during the period of European tour. The Government Order No.Fl.3682-3 dated 27th January 1908 sanctioning the allowance to him, allows it to be drawn when deputed on duty to places in British India other than Madras or Ootacamund. No journeys outside British India was contemplated then, and the issue of any express direction in that order to pay the staff allowance during such period was unnecessary. In these circumstances, this office has taken it as the intention of Government that the said allowance should be paid to Mr.Raghavendra Rao on the present occasion also, and authorised its payment provisionally to his Agent. I therefore
